Dear Parents,

Covid cases in the school

Cases are decreasing day by day. Thank you for everyone who has supported the school by keeping siblings at home and by observing the Year 5 Firebreak. Your actions have made the difference.

- Year 6 - 1 new case
- Year 5 - no new cases - all children are now back in school,
- Year 4 - no new cases - all children are now back in school,

Parents' Evening - on Teams

Parents' Evening will take place as a Teams call between 3.30pm - 6.30pm on Monday 18th and Tuesday 19th October.

You can book your appointment on Parentmail – bookings open on Sunday 3rd October at 8.00pm.

You will need access to your child's Teams account to meet with the class teachers - please check that you know their user name and password. If you do not know this please email the school office – office@my-bps.co.uk and Mrs Issitt will, as always be able to help you.

New parents - log in details and instructions are being sent out this week by the school office. Please ring for help if you get stuck.

New Caterers - Love Food

We are changing to a new food provider. From November 2nd 2021 our caterers will be Love Food. We are excited about the new menu choices that Love Food will provide. Our cook and assistant cook will continue in post but will now be employed by Love Food.

Details about how to book food will change from after half term. Log in details and menus will follow closer to the date. If you have credits with our current caterers please use these up before half term.

Holdenby House - Year 5 - 14th October

Please remember to give permission and pay for this trip on ParentPay. Thank you.

Years 5 & 6 Football Team:

The school football team were quite simply fantastic at a recent tournament. Amazingly, they remained unbeaten scoring many brilliant goals and more importantly working as a team. Unfortunately, they came second overall after finishing level on points with another school and it going down to who had scored the most goals, where they beat us by one! Nevertheless, the team should be extremely proud of their performance, as they were a credit to our school.
