SCHOOL CLOSSES TODAY AT 2.00pm

Dear Parents,

Thank you to everyone for their support and kindness throughout this term and 2021. It has been a privilege to see the children enjoying their learning and growing together.

I hope that you will be able to spend time with your loved ones this Christmas and enjoy some rest and quiet. I will be taking my dogs out to chase the tennis ball and walk the hills, they are hoping that Santa Paws will bring them each a big, delicious bone.

At the year ends we say a sad goodbye to Mrs Karen Chester, thank you Karen for all the joy and fun you have brought to the school. We wish you happiness in your new adventures.

Reception Class:

Reception class have had a busy term of learning and particularly enjoyed recreating the Christmas story. Please click on the link below to view photos:

School Lunch:

Please remember to jump on to Love Food and book your children's lunches before the new term starts.

Government advice- internet safety

Talking to your child about on line safety, where do you start? Some of our older children get their first mobile or digital device for Christmas, they are not always prepared for the wild west of the internet. You might find this link helpful.
