Dear Parents,

I hope that you have enjoyed the Easter holidays. Welcome back to the school for the sunny Summer Term.

Class Assemblies

Today we held our first class assembly in the school hall. The children were so pleased to share their work with parents and grandparents. It was lovely to see parents back inside the school. Well done Year 5 on a super assembly.

You may be attending a class assembly in the next few weeks. Here are some notes that will help you to feel at home:

- ✓ Come to the school gate for 9:00, I will walk you in,
- ✓ Assemblies start at 9:15 in the school hall,
- ✓ Assemblies last about 20-30 minutes,
- ✓ let us know in advance if wheelchair access is needed,
- ✓ Parents and grandparents are welcome, but sorry no babies or pre-school children,
- ✓ You may take photos or videos for family use only - please do not post any content to social media.

If you have a questions or concerns, what is the right thing to do?

Protocol for good communication

- I am at the school gate every morning- please feel free to ask,
- Email or phone the school office during the day and Mrs Issitt will help, or arrange a phone call back for you,
- If you have any concerns staff are at the classroom door every day at dismissal,
- You can email the class teacher, they will reply when they are not teaching. Email addresses can be found on the school website.
- Please do not email staff after 6pm or before 8am or on the weekends. Adults who work with children also need some respite.
- Our staff work very hard, please think before you hit send!

Thank you.
