Dear Parents,

Congratulations! We have made it to half term and stayed open! Thank you parents, staff and children for all your cheerful co-operation through the last 8 weeks. Enjoy the half term break!

Tomorrow is FUN FRIDAY! Children may come in Mufti.

Mufti should be warm and practical clothing, as children will be going outside to play. Please remember that we prefer no football kits. Children need to be able to use the toilets, so if you choose all in one clothes or fancy dress your child must be able to get it on and off independently and without having to strip naked!

Please dig around in the junk draws and behind the sofa for some cash- I know that everyone is cashless now- drop it in the bucket by the school gate- all donations will go to FOBs to pay for play equipment for the children.

Building works

Building work is progressing, the footings have gone in for the new classroom and the bricks have arrived. If you would like to have a look I have posted some pictures on the website.
